23 June 2024
12th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B
First Reading Job 38:1. 8-11
 A reading from the book of Job
Here I have set the boundaries of the sea.
 From the heart of the tempest the Lord gave Job his answer. He said:

Who pent up the sea behind closed doors
 when it leapt tumultuous out of the womb,
 when I wrapped it in a robe of mist
 and made black clouds its swaddling bands;
 when I marked the bounds it was not to cross
 and made it fast with a bolted gate?
 Come thus far, I said, and no farther:
 here your proud waves shall break.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 106:23-26. 28-31. R. v.1

Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

Some sailed to the sea in ships
 to trade on the mighty waters.
 These men have seen the Lord's deeds,
 the wonders he does in the deep.

Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

For he spoke; he summoned the gale,
 tossing the waves of the sea
 up to heaven and back into the deep;
 their soul melted away in their distress.

Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

Then they cried to the Lord in their need and he rescued them from their distress. He stilled the storm to a whisper: all the waves of the sea were hushed.

Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

They rejoiced because of the calm and he led them to the haven they desired. Let them thank the Lord for his love, the wonders he does for men.

Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

Second Reading 2 Corinthians 5:14-17

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

All things are made new.

The love of Christ overwhelms us when we reflect that if one man has died for all, then all men should be dead; and the reason he died for all was so that living men should live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised to life for them.

From now onwards, therefore, we do not judge anyone by the standards of the flesh. Even if we did once know Christ in the flesh, that is not how we know him now. And for anyone who is in Christ, there is a new creation; the old creation has gone, and now the new one is here.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation Luke 7:16

Alleluia, alleluia!
A great prophet has appeared among us;
God has visited his people.
Alleluia!

The Lord be with you.

And with your Spirit.

Gospel Mark 4:35-41

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him.

With the coming of evening, Jesus said to his disciples, 'Let us cross over to the other side.' And leaving the crowd behind they took him, just as he was, in the boat; and there were other boats with him. Then it began to blow a gale and the waves were breaking into the boat so that it was almost swamped. But he was in the stern, his head on the cushion, asleep. They woke him and said to him, 'Master, do you not care? We are going down!' And he woke up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, 'Quiet now! Be calm!' And the wind dropped, and all was calm again. Then he said to them, 'Why are you so frightened? How is it that you have no faith?' They were filled with awe and said to one another, 'Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ
